Dinner & Movie Nite – Tom

It was that time again for our club to sample the cuisine at some ethnic restaurant and take in a good flick for good measure. So on the night of March 30th, Pat D., Sherry, Barb T., and myself went over to the Maharaja restaurant (formerly A Taste of India). The name may have changed, but not their superb cuisine. Afterwards, we went over to the Point Theatre on Mineral Point Rd. to see Lord of the Rings. It was a movie with good special effects, but with a tough plot to follow. That is it for now, Take care.

Dinner & Bowling Nite – Tom Grupp

On Saturday night 4/13, myself, Dave J., Ron, Kevin, and Carol started the night off at CJ's Dining and Cocktails for some dinner. Some of us had filet mignon, others had prime rib, and I believe Ron had Cornish Hen. After feasting on this delicious food, myself, Dave J., Kevin and Carol went over to Dream Lanes for some Moonlight bowling. Dave J., was the bowling machine of the night as he had the best game score of 175 for the night. The next time we do this, I hope more of you come.

Biaggis prior to West Side Club & dancing to Christy B.
