EDITOR'S NOTE – Wanda

Due to the editor's hectic schedule with "The Wedding" at the end of November, this issue contains calendars for November & December and there WILL NOT BE A DECEMBER NEWSLETTER PUBLISHED!!

Please keep the November calendar around, because we will be busy in December and want YOU to be there also!!

Don't forget Milwaukee's weekend Nov 8-10.

And, you are all invited to Tim & Wanda's big party!!
See the enclosed flyer for details.

Remember summer?

Ok, Maybe not that far back, but how about August 24th?

Back when it was warm – and the Blues Fest.

Dave K., Dave J., Linda, Pat, Grant and Libby in the back row.

Then we have Oktoberfest on September 8th in Milwaukee with Dave, Lynn and Pat

These smiling Mad Town Talls are at Capital Brewery September 14th while Mel Ford & West Side Andy were entertaining. We have Kevin & Carol, Don, Pat, Paul, Diane, Tom, Dave J., and Vanessa.

At the Quivey's Grove Beer Tasting Festival on September 28th were Paul, Dave J., Pat & Don

At the Marriott Brunch on Oct. 6th were Dave, Lynn, Donna, Libby, Grant, Ron and Pat.

For Ethnic night in October, MTT hit La Bamba's.

Present were Mary Grace, Carol, Richard, Ron, Kevin and Pat. Jean was there, but took the picture.

Twin Cities Revenge of the Nerds 2002 Weekend – Tom

On the weekend of Oct 18-20th tall persons from around the country converged on the Twin Cities for this years "Revenge Of the Nerds" weekend. It was held again at the Ramada Inn in Bloomington MN. Upon my arrival, my roomie Dave J, fellow member and President of the Mad Town Talls Club, claims that the hotel said that I made no reservation, when I know I did. Luckily, Gayle S. of TCTC was there, and it was discovered that the desk clerk made an error. After getting our gear into our room, we then, along with Fellow Mad Town member Dave K., went over to a restaurant called Chevys. While walking over there we took a short cut through the gigantic MALL OF AMERICA. This mall has five levels with an amusement park inside. The old stadium where the Twins baseball used to be, is on this site, so they have a memorial marker with the original home plate in the its original spot.

After Chevy's, we went back to the hotel to clean up and go to the costume dance. The music was provided by a band call the Dweebs. They did a great job. Best Costume award went to fellow Tall Club of Milwaukee member Barry U. Congratulations Barry! On Saturday, I along with fellow Milwaukee's Diane C. ad Martin F. and other Talls went on some trolley tours of Minneapolis. The first one showed us where Wisconsinite Frank Lloyd Wright designed some buildings, where former vice president Hubert Humphrey (along with his wife) were buried, and the sites where the 70's TV sitcom, the Mary Tyler Moore show was filmed. We were also told the city has 22 inland lakes in its limits. The 2nd trolley just took us on a short piece the original track that was saved for historical purposes. The old car still had the original advertisements still on the wall!! We then went to a place called Nora's for lunch. Other people went on a tour of the mall and went to see Miss TI, Kristin of Boston, give a speech at a tall women's shop. Afterwards I went back to the hotel to watch the Badgers lose to Ohio. BUMMER!

Later on, the semi formal dinner and dance went along smoothly. And we also had a Silent Auction Fund Raiser along with a TCTC casino. I lost $20,000.00 dollars at the black jack tables. Good thing it was only play money. Afterwards it was the good usual after hours and hot tub. ON Sunday, it was the usual breakfast, kill the bottle and farewell hugs. Other Mad Town and Milwaukee members in attendance and not previously mentioned were Carol U. Celia D., Lynn V and Dave H.

My thanks to Gayle and the people who worked with her on making this a fine weekend.
