VOLUNTEERS??

Activities in September & October!!

This promises to be a very FULL fall for Mad Town Talls. Please check out the calendars for both September and October (and don't lose them) and then reference the flyers we have included!

Dues for 2004 - Wanda

We would like to start a dialogue on our dues structure far in advance of the "due date". Currently dues are $30 per person – period. Are the club members interested in changing dues based on more than 1 member per address or 1 newsletter or for electronic newsletter instead of paper? To start the conversation:

- One newsletter mailed to one MTT member per address: $30 / year
- Electronic newsletter via email only, no paper copy: $20 / year
- One newsletter mailed to two MTT members per address: $50 / year for the two memberships

So, what do you think?

Pat & Dave at Cave of the Mounds & then at American Players Theatre in Spring Green for Pygmalion (July 12th)

Below: EEA Fly In (unscheduled), Behind Pat & Dave K is the 1st commercial airline (around 1940). Great show – so much to see!

MadTown Talls Celebrate July 4th Holiday at Rhythm & Booms – Tom Grupp

Well, it's that time of year for every patriotic American to say their oooaaahhss and aaahhaass and that is exactly what a few members of The MadTown Talls and myself did at Warner Park in Madison on June 28th. MTT members in this patriotic group besides myself were Dave J, Ron G, Judi H, Marty K, Pat D, Wanda W, Tim F, Kevin M and Carol N. Pat D's daughter, Julie, also joined us. The fun started at 1p.m. with the 60's group The Buckingham's and later Vic Ferrari band took over. At dusk the sky gliders put on a show. Next, F-15 jets flew low overhead – always an awesome fly over. Then, what has been rated as one of THE best fireworks shows in the Midwest began. Once again, the local Madison radio station WOLX provided the background music that set the tempo for this spectacular display.

Afterwards we all went back to where we had our cars parked, which was at the Northgate Shopping Mall about 1.5 miles from the park. We ordered pizzas from a pizza parlor located in the mall and we had ourselves a pizza tailgate party. It was a great way to pass the time because, like in the past years, the traffic was jammed for several hours on most of the streets within several miles of the park. Those of you who have never attended this event in the past years, should try to make a point of it next year. Unless the weather is bad, you will not regret it!

A gorgeous summer day at Nautigal, Aug 10th
Seated: Dave, Lynn, Ron
Standing: Donna, Wanda, Pat, Doug, Carol, Kevin & Joe. Besides the Sunday brunch, we were entertained by Mel Ford & West Side Andy band!
